

Museum of Ontario Archaeology

Palisade e-Post Newsletter March 2014 vol 7, #04

Spring Moccasin Making Workshop

Sunday, April 6
9 am - 4:30 pm

Make a custom pair of moccasins from genuine hide and fleece. $70-$75/person which includes a $15 deposit. Space is limited to 10 participants. Advanced registration required by calling the Museum at 519-473-1360.

We're blogging!

Have you read our blogs yet? We're writing to introduce you to archaeological themes, history, staff and work study students, and some behind-the-scenes details at MOA. Feel free to leave comments and let us know what you want to hear from MOA!

Featured Artifact from 275 Thames Street

King of the Blood
Medicine created by D.Ransom Son & Co. in the 1870s. Advertisements stated that it "Cures all Humors from a common Eruption to the Worst Scrofula" by purifying the blood & displacing any & all diseases.

March at the MOA

We have a lot of family friendly activities happening early this month at MOA you won't want to miss!

Kids 1st Day : Friday, March 7, 10 am - 4:30 pm

Join us for a FREE family day at the Museum. Kids crafts, scavenger hunt, and self-guided gallery tours. Click for details on other participating sites in London.

March Break: Monday, March 10 - Friday, March 14, 10 - 4:30 pm

We've extended our hours for March Break. We're open Monday to Friday from 10 am - 4:30 pm. Different 'pop up' museum activities will be featured each day (check Facebook/Twitter). Admission rates apply.

MOA Olympics: March Break Day Camp

Kids age 5-9 will explore the history of the Olympics, play sports and games from around the world, discover the modern day Games and their mascots. Space still available to register. $35/day or $135/week.

London Chapter OAS meeting

March 13th at 8 pm in MOA theatre. Living on the Edge: Two Early Late Woodland Components on the Iroquoian-Western Basin Borderland. Dr. Peter Timmins will speak about recent archaeological research in West Elgin County. Doors open at 7:30 pm. All are welcome!

Winter Archaeology Exhibit

March is a great time to visit MOA, the Winter Archaeology Exhibit, and see the artifacts from the Fugitive Slave Chapel.

We've uploaded videos and blogs throughout January to show you the progress of the artifact processing. Now see how artifact washing leads to cataloguing, research, archival storage, and an exhibition! Exhibit information on our website.

Sweat Lodge in the Village March 16

Ceremony at sunset.
Contact the Museum for details.

Email us:

info@archaeologymuseum.ca

(Click the icons)

